FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

vs.)	No. 3:23-CV-1915-B-BH
)
DALLAS COUNTY SHERIFF'S) OFFICE, ET AL.,)
Defendants.)	Referred to U.S. Magistrate Judge¹

FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION

Based on the relevant filings and applicable law, the case should be dismissed for failure to prosecute or comply with court orders.

I. BACKGROUND

On August 31, 2023, a complaint and application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP) were received from the pro se prisoner plaintiff. (See docs. 3, 4.) He was granted leave to proceed IFP on September 1, 2023, and he was also sent a magistrate judge's questionnaire to obtain more information about his claims. (See docs. 5, 6.) The questionnaire specifically advised him that his answers were due within thirty days, and that a failure to file his answers could result in the dismissal of the case. (See doc. 6.) More than thirty days from the date of the questionnaire have passed, but the plaintiff has not filed his questionnaire answers or anything else in this case.

II. INVOLUNTARY DISMISSAL

Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure permits a court to dismiss an action sua sponte for failure to prosecute or follow orders of the court. McCullough v. Lynaugh, 835 F.2d 1126, 1127 (5th Cir. 1988) (§ 1983 prisoner action). This authority flows from a court's inherent power to control its docket, prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases, and avoid congested court calendars. Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 629-31 (1962). The plaintiff failed to comply with an order to respond to a questionnaire despite a warning that failure to do so could result in dismissal of the case, and he has not filed anything else in the case. Because the plaintiff failed to follow court order or otherwise show that he intends to proceed with this case, it should be dismissed.

III. RECOMMENDATION

This case should be dismissed without prejudice under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) for failure to prosecute or follow orders of the court, unless the plaintiff files his responses to the questionnaire within the time for objecting to this recommendation, or by some other deadline set by the court.

SO RECOMMENDED on this 11th day of October, 2023.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE AND NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL/OBJECT

A copy of these findings, conclusions, and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of these findings, conclusions and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's findings, conclusions and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Servs. Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
